Seeking Stories from Black Women Impacted by Opioid Use

#SeeHerBloom plants the stories of Black women in treatment. The wisdom gained from your experience with opioid use will engage other sisters to share their stories and encourages others to take steps towards healing.

To share your story visit:

bit.ly/31UBmsb

Upon completion of the questionnaire, participant will receive a $100 stipend.

All Black women are welcome to participate.

We appreciate you sharing your story to help us see other sisters bloom.
